READING

Task 3

Read the text and answer the questions.

In Great Britain and in some other countries on Easter people wear special hats. These hats are called “bonnets”. The tradition started in the past, when people wore their best clothes to church to celebrate the coming of spring. People can buy the bonnet or create it by themselves. It is usually decorated with flowers, ribbons, bunnies and eggs. Nowadays some cities even conduct Bonnet Parades, where both children and adults can come and show their unusual hat. Some people create something really incredible!

Answer the questions:
